Clark has such an incredible way with words; he is direct and to the point, and the summer's flower is to the summer sweet, Though to itself, it only live and die, But if that flower with base infection meet, The basest weed outbraves his dignity: For sweetest things turn sourest by their deeds; Lilies that fester, smell far worse than weeds. Just like that Cause I want you back Digging out your old letters Sleeping in your old sweater Guess I should've known better Cause you're gone, I want, I want, I want you Riding in your front seat Telling me you want me Nothing could assure your love like this Until I did Running through the red lights Making up a good life Couldn't we go back to what we .
