Media Literacies: A Critical Introduction

This was our 3rd year at the Point on Echo Lake. When the correspondence eventually ceased, the reason is more likely to have been their separation and comparative inaccessibility than any basic unsuitability : although Ausonius wrote fewer of the extant letters, and although literature was his preferred topic, he appears the equal of Symmachus as a letter-writer and suggestions of an unease in his dealings with the aristocracy n can be made only on the basis of the fact that Ausonius seems to have preferred a smaller circle than that of exceptional embrace woven by Symmachus, or the retrospective attitudes found in poems written in his retirement.
