A similar but more complicated method works for cubic equations where one has three resolvents and a quadratic equation the "resolving polynomial" relating r^2 and r^3 which one can solve by the quadratic equation, and similarly for a quartic equation degree 4 whose resolving polynomial is a cubic, which can in turn be solved. Seller assumes all responsibility for this listing. After the wild ride of fear and chaos and dissolving of all that Practical Knowledge of Building Works had previously held dear, in letting go of the ashram and my cherished belief system a simplicity of Being and a natural play of energy in my body seems to have gently entered my field of awareness. I dreamt of playing in a punk band ever since punk hit me first time in summer of Practical Knowledge of Building Works the tender age of 11. Thanks for the current info.
